ROSEMARY KRETSCHMANN
Endowed Scholarship

This scholarship was established by the Kretschmann family in honor of their mother, Rosemary, who throughout her life embodied Christian values through her unfailing faith in God, hope in all things possible and boundless love for her family and others. She sacrificed much to provide her children with a Catholic education at St. Patrick's in Troy, Ohio, St. Jude's and Elyria Catholic High School. All of her children (Kathy '64, Don '67, Joanne '69, Bob '70, Jerry '71, and Fran '73) graduated from Elyria Catholic. This scholarship is intended to assist a St. Jude student who is interested in committing to and strengthening his/her values through furthering his/her Catholic education at Elyria Catholic High School. The scholarship will be awarded annually to a St. Jude, eight grader who meets the following criteria:
