

Deadline: March 15

LOU ROTUNDA ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP

Mr. Lou Rotunda was a man whose service and dedication to Elyria Catholic High School over a span of 50 some years earned him the moniker, “Mr. EC.” Most of his adult life found him immersed in the lives of the students he loved through the roles as teacher, coach and friend. Mr. Rotunda is the most perfect example of the vibrant life of the Elyria Catholic mission built upon the pillars of Excellence, Compassion, Faith, Tradition and Community. He is and will forever be a living spirit of the legacy of “a loyalty that never dies.” This scholarship was funded and will continue to grow from the generous gifts of the many alumni whose lives he has touched.

CRITERIA: Applicant must:

- be a freshman at Elyria Catholic who has enrolled for sophomore year.
- have financial need and academic achievement consistent with his/her potential.
- have participated in extra-curricular activities and performed community service.
- submit a one to two page essay (double spaced, #12 font) telling why he/she deserves this scholarship based upon the above criteria.

Selection, as specified by the Rotunda family, will be made by the acting principal with input from the administrator in charge of student affairs.
